

CAPITAL REGIONAL DISTRICT

BYLAW NO. 3439

*****
A BYLAW TO PROVIDE FOR ACCESS TO CULTURAL EVENTS BY ARTS COMMITTEE MEMBERS
*****

WHEREAS the Board of the Capital Regional District wishes to ensure that applicable staff, and Directors and other elected persons who sit on the Arts Committee or other committees or commissions of the Regional District that are involved in reviewing applications for assistance from persons in the cultural and arts community are entitled to attend cultural events without personal cost to such persons where this is necessary or desirable to further their understanding and critical appreciation of the work of the person presenting the cultural event;

NOW, THEREFORE, the Board of the Capital Regional District in open meeting assembled enacts as follows:

- 1. In this Bylaw:
"cultural event" means a theatrical, musical, dance or other performance or an exhibit of visual arts of any medium, including cinematography, presented by a not for profit society.
"elected official" means a Director of the Regional District Board or a member of a municipal council.
2. An elected official who sits on:
(a) the Arts Committee; or
(b) another committee or commission of the Capital Regional District involved in reviewing applications for assistance from persons in the cultural and arts community will be provided with two tickets or admittance vouchers for a cultural event where attendance at the cultural event is necessary or desirable in connection with the elected official's work as a member of the council, committee or commission to further the elected official's understanding and critical appreciation of the work of the person presenting the cultural event.
3. This Bylaw may be cited as Capital Regional District Cultural Events Access Authorization Bylaw No. 1, 2007.
